

Team Around the Family In Carmarthenshire

What is TAF all about?

What sort of things can a TAF approach help with?

Information for Families

Children, Young People and their Families sometimes need a little extra help for happy, healthy and successful lives. A TAF approach can pull the right people together to help you.

It's about talking about strengths as well as areas that could be improved.

It's about getting you the right help at the right time.

It's about bringing the right people together who can help into your Team Around the Family

It's about working with you, because you are an important member of that Team

It's about listening to you and giving you choices.

TAF is all about making life better for you and your family

- Parenting stresses and problems
- Difficulties in accessing services
- Signposting families looking for support.

TAF is VOLUNTARY and you can say NO at any time.

If you think TAF can help you, you can:
Speak to someone who is already working with you OR Speak to your child's school OR
Contact the Family Information Service
